AYHD Newsletter

Welcome to the newly revived newsletter series providing regular updates from the Association for Young Historical Demographers! The AYHD newsletter keeps you up to date with events, conferences, and calls for papers in historical demography and other related fields. It also gives you a chance to publicize your research or events to a diverse audience. If you would like to contribute to the newsletter, you can email Emma at egd28@cam.ac.uk. Visit our website to sign up for future newsletters and get further information about the association: <https://www.younghistoricaldemographers.com/>

From the AYHD Board

Brayden Rothe

In last month's newsletter, Hampton said that the Association hopes to grow its ranks and engage more young historical demographers. With that in mind, I am joining the AYHD as its first U.S.-based board member! Ideally, this will translate into more engagement with fledgling historical demographers at U.S. institutions, helping to grow our worldwide community!

I am now in the second year of my PhD in history at the University of Minnesota and the Institute for Social Research and Data Innovation. In my undergraduate career I received training in history and sociology, and now at the graduate level I am receiving advanced training in population studies and demography. My work in its current state is evaluating late nineteenth century migration, electrification, and industrialization's impact on fertility in the United States, and its relationship to continued efforts to reconstruct and incorporate the nation. I can be reached at rothe121@umn.edu!

Spotlight Article

Every newsletter we will spotlight one article or working paper by a young historical demographer or researcher in an adjacent field. Would you like to have your work shared or do you know a recent paper that deserves to be spotlighted? Send an email to Joris (joris.kok@iisg.nl) with information on the research you would like to see shared.

This newsletter's spotlight article is:

Women as child carers: Arranging and compensating mothering in early modern Lancashire

Published in The History of the Family by Emily Rhodes (Cambridge University)
